

Lab Renovation Working Group (LRWG)

The LRWG aims to understand where improvement is needed; identify where risks are greatest; and recommend best practices through collaborative efforts between Operations Management and Capital Programs, Academic Affairs, Health Sciences and Scripps Institute for Oceanography with the goal of achieving cost savings and greater efficiency.

LRWG Co-Chairs:

Senior Director of Project Quality Management –
Walt Kanzler (wkanzler@ucsd.edu) 858-401-3285

Director of Space & Capital Planning, Academic Affairs Finance & Administration (AAFA) –

Adrienne Gallo (argallo@ucsd.edu) 858-822-0350

The Lab Renovation Work Group is divided into the following teams (see next page for participants):

- Governance Team
- Core Team – leads and sets the strategic direction for the working group
- LRWG – comprised of all regular working group members that attend bi-monthly meetings.
- Subject Matter Experts/Curators – Available to support ongoing technical considerations.

LRWG Members agree to:

- Meet bi-monthly, or as needed, to develop and implement recommendations of the group.
- Participate in the Steering committee and sub groups to facilitate progress on initiatives.
- Actively track progress on initiatives and report annually.
